

young entrepreneurs of america

Young Entrepreneurs of America

To Educate and Motivate the Next Generation of Entrepreneurs

How Young Entrepreneurs of America is Making a Difference

- 1. YEA provides Jr. High and High Schools teachers with important resources throughout Utah.
 - In-Class Guest Speakers and Presenters – Real access to local entrepreneurs, venture capitalists, and business professionals who specialize in the startup and early-stage environment
 - Complete and Flexible Curriculum – Teachers can pick and choose as much or as little and use materials according to their own schedule and course outline.
 - Exclusive “Teacher’s Only” Website including suggested hands-on activities, active case studies, quizzes, articles, and many helpful suggestions.
- 2. YEA provides students with opportunities to learn and explore entrepreneurial tendencies.
 - Business Plan Competition
 - Young Entrepreneur of the Year Competition
 - Entrepreneur for a Day
 - Young Entrepreneur Summit – Last year the YEA summit provided 400 students from 30 local high schools with over 30 top-quality guest speakers including Venture Capitalists, Entrepreneurs, and Olympic Gold Medalists.
 - Summer Entrepreneur Camp – A one-week comprehensive look at how to start your own successful business taught by those who know.
- 3. YEA makes the connections between interested students and successful local entrepreneurs.
 - Mentor Programs – Nothing beats having a personal connection who can answer important questions.
 - Student Advisor Council allows students to participate in the design of upcoming programs and events.
 - Dinner with an Entrepreneur. Who wouldn’t want to sit down for a nice lunch with the founder of Pixar?
- 4. YEA develops programs to provide realistic insights and
 - Online Textbook
 - Interactive Business Simulation. This is as close as it gets to the challenge and excitement of starting your own business.
 - The Entrepreneurial Life. A series of teaching articles focusing on entrepreneurial concepts in realistic entrepreneurial settings.